Non-Discrimination Policy

Alger Pediatrics complies with applicable federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate based on race, skin color, national origin, age, disability, or sex. Alger Pediatrics does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

Services:

Alger Pediatrics provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as qualified sign language interpreters and written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, etc.).

Alger Pediatrics provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English. These services include qualified interpreters and information written in other languages.

If you need these services, please contact the practice manager.

Filing a grievance:

If you believe that Alger Pediatrics has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way based on race, skin color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance in person, or by mail, fax, or email with:
