A LITTLE ABOUT DR. VEENEMA:

Dr. Jeremy Veenema, D.O. joined Alger Pediatrics in 2021. He is passionate about the missions of Alger Pediatrics and Baxter Community Center. He enjoys serving the broad swath of children that are living in Grand Rapids, and his clinical interests include: routine preventive care, child mental health, and addressing health care disparities.

Dr. Veenema grew up in Grand Rapids and is a graduate of Calvin College and Chicago College of Osteopathic Medicine. After medical school he completed Pediatric Residency at Advocate Children's Hospital in Chicago before moving back to Grand Rapids where he has been practicing pediatrics for over five years. He is board certified in General Pediatrics and is a fellow of the American Academy of Pediatrics. He is married to his wife Laura, and they have 4 children (3 boys and 1 girl). Dr. Veenema enjoys running, camping, and spending time with his family exploring all of the parks and destinations in the Grand Rapids area. He is a member of Alger Park Church.
